Sheriff Cunningham Dead.
 Stockton, Nov. 26.—San Joaquin county received a severe shock today in the death of Thomas Cunningham, who for almost twenty-seven years was Sheriff of the county and was perhaps the best known and most beloved man in the county. Cunningham expired suddenly of heart disease this morning near Tuttlestown, in Tuolumne county.

FRAUDULENT JAPANESE.
 Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 23.—W. H.
 Reed, acting United States Immigration Agent, located in this city, held thirty Japanese who desired to cross over the boundary line into American territory, because their Canadian naturalization papers were inconsistent with the date of their Japanese passports. The Canadian naturalization law requires a three years' residence here, and their passports showed that all had left Japan less than a year ago. It was evident that their naturalization had been fraudulently obtained, and Immigration Agent Reed telegraphed the department at Washington for instructions.
 He was directed, in reply, to permit the Japanese in question to pass, if otherwise qualified; so that it is evident the United States authorities do not propose to concern themselves with the Canadian naturalization troubles. Each of the thirty Japanese had in the neighborhood of $100 in gold in his possession.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 24.—A private cable has been received by W. A. Cum-you, Foreign Secretary for Canada, from the Chinese Empire Reform Association in North China, equipped and sustained by the Chinese Reform Association in Canada and the United States, has come into conflict with the imperial troops in one of the northern provinces of China. Secretary Cum-you, in explaining the cable message, states that reformers on the Sound and in California, including all the Chinese officials of that State and in British Columbia, will not be pleased with the result of the battle. There was no advantage gained by the reform troops and there was a heavy loss of life on both sides. The reform troops fought in self-defense, the imperial troops having smashed their secret meetings houses, dispersed their meetings and compelled the reformers to flee for their lives. The reform troops were then called out and attacked the imperial troops, without advantage, however.

The reform association here will send a cable to their headquarters in Japan expressing regret at their troops attacking the imperial troops, and stating that all they desired for the present was the peaceful disposition of the Empress Dowager and the establishment of Emperor Kwang Hsu on the Chinese throne, and that the army they were adding to support should, in their opinion, not be utilized as a display of force until such time as they may be needed to aid the powers in their demands on the nation.

The reform troops in action were recruited considerably from British Columbia and the Sound, and as the cable intimates that the reform troops were worsted, having lost 500 men, while the imperial troops lost but 100, there is much chagrin felt among the Chinese reformers here, particularly as the clash of arms was the first one engaged in by an army whose ulterior object was to force reforms on the Chinese nation, if necessary, at the muzzle of the rifle. Local reformers say their cause is much impaired by the precipitate action of the reform army.

SUCCESS TO DAVIS.
 St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 27.—Governor Lind, who is a Democrat, will have the naming of a Senator to fill the vacancy caused by Senator Davis' death in the interval between now and the time the Legislature meets. It is understood that the Governor will not name a Senator of his own political faith.
 The time of his service would be so short that it is believed there would be nothing practically gained by the move. It is stated that Governor Lind will name former Senator W. D. Washburn to fill the vacancy. Although opposed politically, Governor Lind and Senator Washburn have long been close personal friends, and it is regarded as highly probable that the ex-Senator will be named. Senator Knute Nelson, whose term expires in March next, is a candidate for reelection and had the endorsement of the last Republican State convention. The forthcoming Legislature will therefore have the choosing of two United States Senators.

 Reed, acting United States Immigration
 boundary line into American territory,
 because their Canadian naturalization
 of their Japanese passports. The Cana-
 passports showed that all had left
 Agent Reed telegraphed the department at Washington for instructions.
 otherwise qualified; so that it is evi-
 his possession.

 cable has been received by W. A. Cum-
 you, Foreign Secretary for Canada,
 sustained by the Chinese Reform Association in Canada and the United
 imperial troops in one of the northern
 you, in explaining the cable message,
 imperial troops, without advantage,
 however.

 tacking the imperial troops, and stat-
 Empress Dowager and the establish-
 needed to
